

Seeking an Afternoon Teacher

Marigold Montessori School is a small non-profit preschool/kindergarten program. We are part of the Wildflower Network that aims to serve racially and socioeconomically diverse communities with exceptional authentic Montessori education. We are in search of a passionate advocate for young children with EEC Teacher Certification (preferred). The ideal candidate is available to work 3-6 hours per day Monday through Friday, teaching in our afternoon program.

Your Role

As an afternoon teacher, you will work in a team of 2 to 3 teachers and in conjunction with school teacher leaders. You will be a critical member of our school community reinforcing Montessori's philosophy of whole child education. Your responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Supporting the children with all aspects of the daily routine
- Assist in providing for the welfare, safety and educational achievement of the children
- Help plan and implement enrichment activities such as arts projects, music and movement, nature exploration, etc
- Potential to assume lead teacher responsibilities based on experience and qualifications

Your Qualifications

- Experience with young children; Montessori education experience is a plus
- Must have or intend to pursue EEC qualification for preschool teaching
- Have a strong understanding of child development and support growth through independence
- A desire to grow and learn in a collaborative, supportive, creative and fun environment
- Spanish language skills are a plus
